

The diagram shows a large white rectangle representing the envelope body, with a light gray border. The top corners of the rectangle are clipped at a 45-degree angle. A dashed green line follows the inner edge of the gray border, defining the printable area. Below the main rectangle, there is a section with two light gray boxes containing text and a list of printing tips.

Envelope printing tips:

- Artwork cannot bleed / touch edge.
- The envelopes are printed on a different machine than our press - the printer tends to print slightly darker and will not be an exact match.
- Large/heavy areas of coverage are not recommended.
- Textured envelopes may show through printing.
